

Christ and the seafarers

This image, which is well known to AOS at international level, was designed by Stella Maris Barcelona. We have always been happy to supply copies, including high quality versions suitable for printing, to any AOS centre and are delighted that people have made use of them. All that we ask is that you include the following text in small print at the bottom of the image:

“Image design by Apostleship of the Sea, Barcelona, Spain”